

Alain Weill

Alain Weill was born in Nancy, France. He is married with 3 children, one of which has severe haemophilia A.

Professional background:

Graduated in business and management (High business School and IEP-INSEAD)

Through 34 years spent in the international air transport industry I have had the opportunity to

- live and work in various countries around the world such as India and the United Kingdom,
- face global and multidisciplinary challenges with an international perspective,
- negotiate alliances and financial partnerships when I was vice-president of European Affairs and chief of staff of the CEO of Air France Group.

Involvement with the hemophilia community:

2008: elected member of French Hemophilia Society board.

2008: member of AFH executive committee in charge of European and international affairs.

2010: elected member of the European Hemophilia Consortium (EHC, 43 NMOs) Steering Committee and selected by the European Commission to represent patients at EUCERD (European Committee of Experts in Rare Diseases).

2012: elected President of the World Federation of Hemophilia.

2016: re-elected President of the World Federation of Hemophilia
