

Monika Esser

Monika Esser is a certified Paediatric Rheumatologist and is the Head of the NHLS Immunology Laboratory Unit Medical Microbiology at Tygerberg Academic Hospital, Stellenbosch University. Monika is the consultant in charge of paediatric clinical immunology and rheumatology services. She is the founding member and past chairperson of the African Society for Immunodeficiencies (ASID).

An HPCSA accredited convener of the Paediatric Rheumatology sub specialist training program and the Immunology Intern Scientist Program at Stellenbosch University. She is also the founding member of the NGO and chairperson of HOPE Cape Town Association. Research activities and publications range from prevention of neonatal sepsis, descriptions of immune deficit /dysregulations, innate immune responses in HIV exposure of neonates to molecular diagnostic investigation and data collection for the SA Registry of Primary Immune deficits.