

Rajesh Patel

Dr Rajesh Patel is currently the Head of the Benefit & Risk Department at the BHF.

Prior to that, he worked as a family physician from 1987 – 1995. After leaving private practice he joined the medical aid industry. His roles in the industry covered Medical Advisor, Scheme Manager and Clinical Risk Management. Prior to joining the BHF in 2005 Rajesh spent two and a half years in the pharmaceutical industry. His special interests are quality assurance, value based medicine and application of public health principles in health risk management in the private sector.

He is a member of the Health Data ministerial advisory committee. Prior to this, he was a non-executive director of the Council for Health Service Accreditation of Southern Africa (COHSASA) and Health Quality Assessment (HQA) as well as a former Chairman of the Clinical Review Committee of HQA.